First Wagon, Machine and Implement Company 1895

The first wagon, machine and implement company was the one which David Capner Hanks started in 1895 in Heber on his home property. His building in 1904 was at 14 South Main Street and was an appendage on the south end of the Heber Bank Building. It, in fact, was completed and in operation before the Bank was completed in 1904.

David Capner Hanks was the son of Ephraim Knowlton and Jane Maria Capner Hanks. Ephraim Knowlton Hanks was the famous Mormon scout for Brigham Young in Pioneer days. Ephraim owned property down in Charleston soon after the first settlers came. He contracted to carry mail for the U.S. Government from Salt Lake City to the Missouri River and return.

David married two wives, one in 1893, Mary Elizabeth Baum, daughter of Isaac Baum, and the second, Emma Wright Hulet, in 1915. During David's time as a merchant in Heber City, he also served as one of the first Heber City Councilmen under the first elected Heber City Mayor in 1896, James W. Clyde.

The second wagon and machine company was the Consolidated Wagon & Machine Company, started in 1908 when David Capner Hanks moved his family to Teton, Teton, Idaho. Notice that the Hanks Building, separate from the Bank building, had been torn down, and the Heber Mercantile Building had been built. The new Consolidated Wagon & Machine Company was on the south end of, and inside, the Heber Mercantile Building.

Note: In the accompanying photograph, the old Lake Creek running west under Main Street at about 49 South Main, as it does even today—2006. It can be seen on the north side of the Timberline Store behind the picket fence.

2. Unpublished photos from woman in Salt Lake City who was the daughter of the man who built the first Heber Bank Building. His name was Mr. Thomas Lyons Fisher.

Daddy, the paragraph about he second company is confusing. Did he go up to Teton, Idaho and have a company there? Did he start a second company there, while still having the one in Heber? Then where these were vis a vis the Heber Bank and Mercantile Buildings can be stated clearly. Also was the Heber Mercantile Building the one kitty korner from the Heber Bank Block currently?

Also, Rachelle, spelled Ephraim as "Ephriam". I keyboarded it as "Ephraim". Which one is correct?
